Call to Worship Dianne Niemann

Beloved in Christ, destruction and violence are everywhere; strife and contention are all around. In such a moment,

The needs of the world are so great that only you, O Lord, can lighten our paths, and increase our faith.

When the law turns slack and justice does not prevail among us,
God of justice, love, compassion, and forgiveness, still call us to do justice!

Friends, come let us worship God, who requires us to do justice, and practice mercy.

We come, worshiping our great God, in whom all things are possible.

Opening Hymn "Great is Thy Faithfulness" UMH #140

Opening Prayer Rev. Magloire K. Kaneng

For the gift of faith which sees beyond the present moment and looks to an eternity, we thank you, Lord, For the gift of faith small as a mustard seed, which has power within its simplicity, we thank you, Lord.

Guide us and fill us with your Spirit, as we worship you, Lord, Fill our hearts with humility and praise, we pray all this in Jesus' name, Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Dianne Niemann

God of times and seasons, we confess that sometimes our choices mislead us and we take too long to turn to you, forgetting that you are the power that saves and sustains us. Forgive us when our faith becomes weary, forgive us when our control keeps others from knowing you. Redeem us and help us, O God. Open our hearts, that we may become a doorway to your realm in all seasons. Amen.

Silent PrayerWords of Assurance

Dianne Niemann

Friends, now hear the good news: You are fearfully and wonderfully created in God's image to trust and obey God, for He will never mislead us, and in Christ, we are all forgiven, strengthened, and called once again to love God. Amen.

World Communion Sunday: October 5, 2025

A Celebration of Unity and Service

On the first Sunday in October, United Methodist congregations join many Christian churches across the globe in celebrating World Communion Sunday. World Communion Sunday began as World-Wide Communion Sunday at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1933. The Rev. Hugh Thompson Kerr and his congregation sought to demonstrate the interconnectedness of Christian churches, regardless of denomination. Rev. Kerr appropriately chose the sacrament of Holy Communion to symbolize this unity.

"The term Holy Communion invites us to focus...on the holiness of our communion with God and one another," states This Holy Mystery, The United Methodist Church's official statement on the sacrament.

In 1940, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, which included all of the predecessor denominations of The United Methodist Church, adopted World-Wide Communion Sunday. The global celebration occurs on the first Sunday in October.

History of giving

In connection with the celebration of World-Wide Communion Sunday, the Methodist Church collected a special offering for the Fellowship of Suffering and Service. The Methodist Commission on Overseas Relief, the forerunner of today's United Methodist Committee on Relief received half of the offering. The other half was divided between two agencies that ministered to military members: the Methodist Commission on Chaplains and the Methodist Commission on Camp Activity. Many traditions, one sacrament

A special giving Sunday In The United Methodist Church, World Communion Sunday continues to be a special giving Sunday. The monies raised today help provide scholarships for UM students.
